Your payment percentage will go to C.A.I. at donations@cai-trust.co.uk. When Sellers provide services to Buyers, they are responsible for having proper qualifications, insurance and a practice certificate (if necessary) so that in the case of loss, the Buyer will be compensated. If a Buyer rejects a service from the Seller, they are responsible for coming to a mutually agreed upon termination of the service so no loss will be incurred. C.A.I. is not responsible for loss from a service which does not transpire. Monies are not released to the Seller or Buyer until the Seller and Buyer reach an agreed-upon conclusion of the sale. There is no charge for services that do not sell. You may sell as many services as you wish.  Tick this box if you agree to be bound by all of the terms and conditions shown above.
